

COMMISSIONERS' PROCEEDINGS

Among the things that were pressed to conclusion in the early morning session was that by Promoter Will Ross of the Gaiter section for a bridge across the Withlacoochee river at Stokes' ferry. He said he had a promise from one of the Citrus county commissioners that that board would bear one-third of the expense of building the bridge, and wanted to know what Marion county would do.

On motion of Mr. Long the board promised two-thirds of the cost.

Incidentally it was suggested that the bridge had to be made with a draw and that the Dunnellon bridge cost about $700.

Promoter Ross was so enthusiastic about the necessity of a bridge for his people to transfer their surplus products to the mines of Citrus, that he said if that county failed to come up with her third his people would shoulder it.

Mr. Ross telegraphed the Citrus board, and in the afternoon received word that the resolution to pay one-third of the cost of the bridge was tabled, but Mr. R. will not stop at such small obstacles, but will go to work to raise a Gaiter regiment, supplemented by a Citrus county, across-the-river brigade, march to Laverness at the next meeting of that board and capture it and the appropriation, with a flag for the banner bridge promoter.

THE COMMISSIONERS' REPLY

Through Mr Long, the reason why the board declined to entertain the Star's proposition to donate half the proceeds of the delinquent tax list to the county will be in print in a few days. We have not room to insert it here.

COMMISSIONER MORGAN EXPLAINS
Why he voted as he did on the question.

He said the evening the subject came up to name a paper he proposed and made a motion to postpone the consideration of the question until the next day, so that the two applicants could get together and decide on a basis of a division of the proceeds, but could get no second.

Mr. Long said this was the first intimation he had had of the fact, but Chairman Allen sustained Mr. Morgan, and Mr. Long accepted it, but said if done he was not in his seat at the time, for he certainly would have seconded it.

McLeod remarked that he understood Mr. Harris to say that two papers could not get together and he did not see any use in waiting any longer; so he it was who moved that the Banner be named, and Mr. Liddell it was who seconded the motion, and Mr. Morgan said that as his motion failed to settle the question he promptly voted for the Banner.

Mrs. McCoon of the Gaiter section applied for tax reduction.

Mr. Seckinger appeared for Pompey and Celia Carter, old negroes near Tom Phillips', who said they were willing to go the poor farm.

Commissioner Allen made his report of Tobacco Patch ferry. He said he had arranged with W. F. Jordan to build a ferry flat for $50. Approved. He also spoke of his visit to the proposed road in which E. C. Sims, near Marshville, takes such an interest. It was so wet that Allen came near bogging, so he ordered Farmer to

A Good Sermon

Rev. H. A. Hodges of Citra preached an impressive sermon last night at the Methodist church. His subject was "The Christian Warfare." In a clear and forcible manner he pointed out the tactics of the evil one in leading men astray. It was very necessary that we should learn the methods of an enemy in order to know how to overcome him. The speaker said that Satan was sure to make an effort to break a man's faith. When our faith in God is weakened we are easy victims of the great enemy. If we hold on to faith in God, then the devil will try to destroy our faith in the church and in Christian people. Mr. Hodges made an earnest appeal to all present to be good soldiers of Jesus Christ. The congregation was delighted with the sermon, and many of them joined in an earnest prayer of consecration at the close. Mr. Hodges will assist Pastor Nixon all the week. Services at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Every one is cordially invited.
